

Vancouver Island Junior Football Society

Player Code of Conduct

As a player representing the Vancouver Island Junior Football Society and Victoria Rebels Football Club, you are now a member of our family and a valued person in the organization. When you sign to play for our club you are accepting values that we hold in high regard to ensure you represent our organization with a mature, responsible and professional attitude. We expect all our members to act in a manner that we can be proud of and will enhance the club in a positive light in the community. When you put on a Rebel jersey, you are taking on the reputation of an association that has been a part of this city's sporting fabric since 1971. The Executive, Board of Directors, Management and Coaching Staff will hold all players accountable and responsible for their behavior and actions while in the Rebels organization. Please read and acknowledge the conditions of your status as a player with this team:

- I agree to play for the Rebels within the spirit of the Game.
- I agree to respect all coaches, players, officials, club members and fans.
- I agree to play with honor and integrity.
- I agree to represent the organization with a positive attitude.
- I agree to act in a responsible and accountable manner.
- I will participate in all team functions to the best of my ability.
- I will play hard for my teammates, coaches, association and fans.
- I will do my best to be a role model for young athletes and fans.
- I will respect all rights and properties of others.
- I agree to work my best at any employment the team finds me.
- I agree to respect my billet, landlord or place of accommodation.
- I agree to give adequate and proper notice when leaving a job or accommodation.
